

Cross-cultural communications

COURSE SYLLABUS ABSTRACT

Speciality code and name:7-06 -0612-03 Information management systems

Advanced higher education

	Form of higher education	Form of higher education
	full-time	correspondence course
Course	1	1
Semester	1	1
Practical (seminar) classes	70	14
Exam, semester	1	1
Classroom hours per academic discipline	70	14
Independent work, hours	148	202
Total hours per academic discipline/credit units	218 /6	218 /6

1. Course outline

This study guide is intended for students mastering the content of the educational program of higher education of the second stage, which develops knowledge, skills and abilities in scientific, pedagogical and research work and ensures obtaining a master's degree; for applicants mastering the content of a postgraduate educational program that provides the scientific qualification "Researcher". The main content is aimed at developing knowledge about the basic concepts and theories of cross-cultural communication, about significant theories of intercultural communication recognized in the modern world, which in turn will serve to develop one's own personal position and orientation in the complex and ambiguous communication system of a modern multicultural environment

2. Course learning outcomes

Upon completion of the course students will be expected to know:

- theoretical and methodological foundations of cross-cultural communication;
- basic concepts and principles of intercultural communication;
- features of modern sociocultural processes;

- current problems of modern culture in the light of globalization and multiculturalism;
ways and methods of intercultural interaction in a given environment;
be able to:

apply knowledge in the field of intercultural communication in professional activities;
- analyze the processes and trends of the modern sociocultural environment;
- navigate the theories and approaches of modern intercultural communication.

to possess a skill:

- theoretical analysis of the main problems of intercultural communication;
- overcoming problems in the process of intercultural communication and a tolerant attitude towards representatives of other cultures.
- use of methods and techniques of professional communication;

3. Competencies

UK-3 Communicate in a foreign language in an academic, Scientific and professional environment to implement research and innovation activities

SK-14 Apply knowledge of document management and negotiation process in international professional activities

4. Requirements and forms of midcourse evaluation and summative assessment

Intermediate certification - exam

Current certification - oral survey