

REGIONAL TRANSPORT POLICY

(course title)

ANNOTATION TO THE CURRICULUM OF THE INSTITUTION OF HIGHER EDUCATION

Specialty 7-06-1042-01 « Logistics services for transport »

Profiling Transport logistics of cities and regions

	STUDY MODE
	Full-time	Part-time
Year	1	2
Semester	2	3
Lectures, hours	34	8
Practical (seminar) classes, hours	16	4
Exam, semester	1	3
Classroom hours per academic discipline	50	12
Independent work, hours	58	96
Total hours in the academic discipline / credits	108 / 3

1. Course outline.

The purpose of teaching the discipline - the formation of students' understanding of the transport policy as a comprehensive activity carried out as part of the management of regional transport systems to improve their effectiveness.

2. Course learning outcomes

Upon completion of the course, students will be expected to know:

- basic concepts, categories and theories used in transport planning;
- main stages of development of urban transport and transport planning and key current trends in this area;
- principles of modern transport planning and transport policy, key directions and measures of modern transport policy.

be able to:

- use in professional activity the algorithm of work on the implementation of regional transport policy;

to possess a skill:

- analysis of transport demand and transport supply, assessment of reserves of the regional transport system;
- independent work with data and literature;
- argumentative speech (written and oral) on topical issues in the field of regional transport policy.

3. Competencies.

SK-7 - Possess the basic principles of regional transport system formation, optimize its parameters.

4. Requirements and forms of midcourse evaluation and summative assessment.

Defense of individual assignment, credit.